AMERICAN NEWS.

Decision Rendered by the Interstate Commerce Commission Involving Immigration.

Heavy Snow Storm in Kansas—Strike of Coal Miners on the Panhandle Road.

Socialists Prepare to Celebrate the Anniversary of the Hanging of Chicago Anarchists.

Interstate Commerce Commission.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The interstate commerce commission by Chairman Cooley, rendered a decision to-day in the case of James C. Savery & Co., vs. the New York Central and Hudson River railway and others, dismissing the complaint. The decision in this case has been looked for with considerable interest throughout the country, as it involved the reception of immigrants at Castle Garden, New York, and also their transportation to the interior states. The matter of the reception of immigrants at the port of New York having been put by the laws of the state under the control of a board of commissioners of emigration, and that board having made such regulations as it has deemed desirable for the protection of emigrants until they are ticketed and put on board railroad trains for their respective ultimate destinations, and the federal government through its legislative and executive departments having sanctioned the control by the commissioners of emigration, the interstate commerce commission has no authority to interfere with their regulations, not having the authority to interfere directly, and the central commissioners of emigration cannot do so indirectly by prohibiting the railway companies from carrying out the arrangements made by the commissioner with them. There is nothing illegal or wrongful in a railway company making a rate for immigration as a class, and deciding to give the same to others. A railway company which transports emigrants in unfit cars will be required to provide better accommodation, and to ascertain their fitness. The commission will make its own inspection. The rates complained of in this case as excessive, were voluntarily remedied pending the proceedings.

Preparing for Harrison's Inauguration.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. — Among the republican residents of the district the arrangements for the next inauguration are already being discussed. It has been the custom to organize a committee to take charge of the various details, such as the decoration of the city, the inaugural parade, the ball, fireworks, the care of visitors, etc. To meet the expenses of the entire demonstration, the contributions of citizens and the sale of ball tickets have been in the past the only sources of revenue. The amount usually collected and disbursed for the inauguration expenses by the citizens' committee is between $25,000 and $30,000. No public building being available, it may be necessary to erect a temporary building for the inauguration ball. It would cost about $20,000.

The Teemer-O'Connor Race.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Teemer, the oarsman, who is to row O'Connor on the 24th inst., on the Potomac, arrived here to-day with Hamm, his trainer. Teemer is in excellent condition.

Strike of Coal Miners.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 9.—Three hundred miners, who struck at W. L. Scott's coal works on the Panhandle road yesterday, will now be compelled to seek employment elsewhere. It is stated to-day that Mr. Scott had decided to close the mine for the winter, and all unfinished orders for coal will be transferred to Scottshaven, where the men are still working for 74 cents per ton. It is probable now that all river miners will be reduced to 74 cents per ton on account of Scott's action.

Sugar Refinery Shut Down.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—The Boston sugar refinery at East Boston will shut down to-morrow night for an indefinite period. At the office of the company it is stated that advantage is taken of the present small demand for sugar to temporarily close the works for repairs and improvements that shall increase the present production of the refinery. On the market it is reported the shut-down was ordered by the trust.

Railway Consolidation.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—The Flint & Pere Marquette Railway Company has arranged for the consolidation of its various roads in Michigan, to take effect May 10th next, for the sake of economizing and simplifying the system preparatory to building to Detroit.

Dividend of One Per Cent.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—The C. B. & L. directors held a three-hour session to-day and declared a dividend of 1 per cent., making 5 per cent. for the year.

A Dismal Anniversary.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The anniversary of the hanging of the Chicago Anarchists will be celebrated in this city to-morrow night by a parade of German federated trades and socialist unions and associations. After the parade a meeting will be held in Cooper Union at which Herr Most will preside, and addresses will be made by Charles Jonas, editor of the Volks Zeitung, Gustav Schwab and others.

New York's Last Hanging.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Patrick Packenham, an aged man, who cut his wife's throat last April, was to-day convicted of the murder, and will, doubtless, be sentenced to be hanged. This will probably be the last execution on the gallows in this state, as capital punishment for murder after January 1st, will be by electricity.

A Forger Confesses.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 9.—Another sensation was created in business and political circles here this afternoon. F. H. Braggins, chairman of the republican county central committee, and at one time associate editor of the Cleveland Leader, surrendered himself to the sheriff and confessed that he had forged ex-Mayor Rose's name to notes aggregating from $6,000 to $7,000. Several banks will suffer.

A Heavy Snowstorm.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 9.—The heaviest snowstorm ever known at this season began at 3 a. m. Reports from Kansas show the storm is general all over the state.

Print Cloth Sales.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Nov. 9.—The Fall River Iron Works Company, which is now owned by the American Printing Co., proposes to erect at once four new print cloth mills, each of 40,500 spindles, which will supply cloth for the American Printing Co. The print cloth marked is good and large sales of 64,264 have been made during the week at 3 13-16 cents.

Another Republican Victory.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 9.—Carr (rep.) is re-elected to congress by about 2,700 majority, over Organ (dem.), almost doubling the previous republican majority.

Carried Over Niagara Falls.

BUFFALO, Nov. 9.—An unknown man jumped into the river from Prospect Park at Niagara Falls this afternoon and was carried over the falls.

A Scaffold Falls.

STAMFORD, Conn., Nov. 9.—By the falling of a mason's scaffold in the Weed building to-day, four men were thrown to the ground, two being killed and the others severely injured.

Ross Wins the Wrestling Match.

BOSTON, Nov. 9.—The wrestling match to-night, between Duncan Ross and H.M. Dufur, best three falls in five, was won by Ross.

Fatal Accident.

OAKLAND, Cal., November 9.—Michael O'Hern, a farmer 57 years old, was thrown from his wagon and killed this morning.

More Railway Strikers.

ALBANY, Nov. 9.—Last night 125 more freight brakesmen and conductors on the Hudson river division went out on strike, in sympathy with 400 striking switchmen, brakesmen and pin-pullers between here and West Albany.

The Fever.

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 9. — Dr. Neal Mitchell, president of the board of health, reports twenty new cases of yellow fever and six deaths.

Republican Plurality.

HARTFORD, Nov. 9.—Official returns at the secretary of state's office from every town in the fourth congressional district, give Miles, republican, 21,003; Seymour, democrat, 20,977, a plurality of 26 for Miles.

Montana Returns.

HELENA (Mont.), Nov. 9.—Corrected returns give Carter, republican delegate, forty-five hundred majority in the territory.

Awful Mining Disaster.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 9.—A special from Pittsburg, Kansas, says: The most dreadful disaster in the history of Kansas occurred at five o'clock this evening, when men were preparing to leave their work at shaft No. 2 at Frontenac, a suburb of Pittsburg. A terrible explosion occurred that shook the earth for a great distance. Upon investigation it was found that 160 men were in the mine at the time, 112 feet below the surface, and undoubtedly all of them are dead. Two men, who were in the car coming up and were near the top, were the only men who escaped.

Murdered Her Husband.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Nov. 9.—Samuel Brown, a farmer who lived near North Liberty village, of this county, was killed by his wife this morning. Mrs. Brown was not of perfectly sound mind and her temper was naturally violent. This morning after on unusually angry dispute with her husband over a trivial matter, she seized an axe and pursued him through the house, hacking him repeatedly, and finally felling him to the floor dead. Mrs. Brown has been arrested and will be examined as to her sanity.

CAPITAL NOTES.

Lord Stanley Cables the Prince of Wales Congratulations on His 47th Birthday.

F. S. Barnard Recognized as the Government Candidate in Cariboo—Encouraging Reports of Dominion Revenue—The Mormons of Lees Creek Want a Town Site and Post Office.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 9. — The Governor-General cabled the Prince of Wales to-day congratulations on the 47th anniversary of his birthday with the best wishes for his future.

Your correspondent has been authoritatively informed that Mr. F. S. Barnard of Victoria, is recognized as the Government candidate in Cariboo.

The Dominion revenue for the first four months of the current fiscal year is most encouraging, being one million two hundred thousand dollars over a corresponding period last year. The surplus revenue over the expenditure for four months is three millions seven hundred thousand dollars.

The Mormon elders from Lees creek settlement, which Steuhouse joined, interviewed Hon. Mr. Dewdney to-day. They want land for a townsite at Lees creek, relief from timber dues and the establishment of a post office.

Sir Adolphe Caron and Hon. Mr. Thompson returned from New York. Sir Adolphe Caron brought back unfavorable impressions of the Gotham reporters. He thinks they are about equal to the Ottawa prevaricator.

SMILES.

Doctor Jack—"How's this—on the sick list?" Algy—"Ya-as. Weally I can't stand this wild life! Thwee cigawettes and a glass of wine lawst night, and had to get up this morning before nine. I must weform."—Judge.

Father (to his little son, who has just handed him the teacher's report of progress and conduct for the last month)—This report is very unsatisfactory; I'm not at all pleased with it. Little son—I told the teacher I thought you wouldn't be, but he wouldn't alter it.

Mamma (the next morning)—Edith, my dear, I don't think you should have such late callers. Mr. Simpkins stayed here until after eleven last night. Edith—Why, mamma! How can you call him a late caller? I'm sure it was only a few minutes after seven when he called!

United States senatorial five-minute speeches are timed by an old-fashioned time-glass. When a senator begins his remarks the glass is turned so that the sands begin to run. When the last grain drops through the tiny opening the speaker's gavel descends, and the stream of eloquence is cut off short. This led Senator Ingalls to say: "It takes sand to run the senate."

Miss Dearleigh (on the tennis ground)—"Won't you join us, Mr. Whiteband?" Rev. Mr. Whiteband—"I'm sorry to say I haven't the marriage service with me, Miss Dearleigh."—Burlington Free Press.

Citizen (to lawyer)—I want you to get me a pension. Lawyer—Yes, sir. Where were you wounded? Citizen—Oh! I wasn't wounded, but my substitute was killed.—N. Y. Sun.

CABLE NEWS.

Another Shocking Murder Added to the List of Whitechapel Horrors.

Bloodhounds Prove Useless to Trace the Murderer—The Remains Horribly Mutilated.

Lord Salisbury at Guildhall—Confident of the Advancement of the Government's Policy.

Another Whitechapel Horror.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Another horrible murder has taken place in the East End. A woman's body, hacked and cut into pieces, was found this morning in Dorsett street. The police are endeavoring to track the murderer with bloodhounds. The body was mutilated in a manner similar to the bodies of the women previously murdered. The victim was like the rest of the Whitechapel victims, an abandoned woman. She had a husband who was a porter, but she lived with him only at times. Her name is believed to be Lizzie Fisher, and she was nicknamed "Mary Jane." As she entered the house where she lodged by means of a latch key, probably no one saw the man who accompanied her, hence it is doubtful if the murderer is ever identified. The man might easily have left the house at any time between the hours of 1 and 6 o'clock a. m., without attracting attention. Physicians who viewed the corpse reserve their statements for the inquest which follows. The bloodhounds, which are owned by a private citizen, have been placed on the scent, but they are useless. The appearance of the remains was frightful, and the mutilation was even greater than the previous cases. The head had been severed from the body and placed beneath one of the arms. The ears and nose had been cut off. The body was disemboweled and the flesh had been torn from the thighs. The womb and other organs are missing. The forehead and cheeks had been completely skinned, and one hand was pushed into the stomach.

Lord Salisbury at Guildhall.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—Lord Salisbury speaking at Guildhall to-night on the occasion of the Lord Mayor's banquet, said that he was prepared to deny that the government yielded to its opponents on any question of policy. It had never been more confident of the advancement of its policy, and he honestly believed that the policy could be executed. The events in America would add more to the history of electioneering than to the history of politics (laughter). If there was any complaint against statesmen at Washington it did not involve the two nations, since the action of the Washington statesmen had apparently been commended by or received the approval of the American people. The government had done much, he said, to restore the financial equilibrium in Egypt, but the surety of the frontier was unachieved. Five great powers maintained twelve millions of armed men. That fact did not suggest that England ought to diminish her confidence in the maintenance of peace, but amid such preparations England must not remain unprepared. If England's commercial community felt that England's power to protect them was insufficient, then terror thereat would cause greater loss to the country than would an expenditure to maintain confidence.

Exploration of Greenland.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—A vessel which has arrived at a port in Norway, reports that Nausen, the explorer, has accomplished his perilous journey across Greenland or the inland country, and has arrived safely at Godthaab on the west coast of Greenland. The journey was made on snow shoes and was for the purpose of exploring the unknown interior of Greenland.

The Whitechapel Horror.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—In the Commons to-night, Mr. Conybeare, member for Camborne, asked whether in view of the latest Whitechapel murder, Sir Charles Warren ought not to be superseded as chief commissioner of police by a person more accustomed to investigate crime. The Speaker gave the member notice that the question must be submitted in writing.

The Mahdi Captures a Town.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The garrison at Wadai, according to despatches received to-night, with the assistance of the Egyptian garrison in West Darfour, repulsed an army of 70,000 followers of the Mahdi, killing 3,000 of them. Subsequently the Mahdists rallied and attacking Wadai captured the town.

Fatal Marine Disaster.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Cunard steamer Nantes came into collision with the German ship Theodore Ruger off Lizard Point to-day. Both vessels sank. Part of the Ruger's crew were saved. The fate of the remainder and the entire crew of the Nantes is as yet unknown.

A Hint to Keep Away.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The American friends of the King of Wurtemburg—Jackson, Hendry and Woodcock—have been delicately requested not to return to the companionship of their royal patron.

The Commission.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Parnell commission to-day continued the taking of testimony without reference to outrages.

The Liverpool St. Leger.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The race to-day for the Liverpool St. Leger was won by "Toscomo." The great Lurchier handicap was won by "Tisbin."

A Verdict of Murder.

DUBLIN, Nov. 9.—The jury in the coroner's inquest in the case of the aged tenant Dunne, who died on the road at Ardee after eviction two weeks ago, rendered to-day a verdict of murder, upon which warrants were issued for police officers Emerson and Dudgeon.

Francis Joseph's Anniversary.

VIENNA, Nov. 9.—Emperor Francis Joseph has expressed his desire not to receive either addresses or deputations on the anniversary of his accession to the throne, and that no expensive fetes be held on the occasion, and he wishes that the anniversary should be marked only by acts of public charity.

Death of a Noted Physician.

VIENNA, Nov. 9.—Henri De Bamberger, the noted Austrian physician, is dead.

Coal Mines Flooded.

VIENNA, Nov. 9.—The coal mines at Salgotarja are flooded. Twenty persons are known to be drowned and others are missing.

JACK THE RIPPER

Notifies the Police He Will Commit Additional Atrocities To-Day.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The city police have received a post-card on which the following was written:

"Dear Boss: On Saturday night I will do two more murders on a man and a boy. I am Jack the Ripper."

The police at Rotherhithe had a letter which was found on Anchor street, Rotherhithe, at 5:30 on Saturday afternoon, handed to them, and it is dated the 12th, and contains the following:

"I'll be over here soon. I'll have you. My knife is a sharp one. Jack the Ripper. I am up in the city and Bermondsey every day. Good old Leather Apron."

Another letter, bearing a Kilburn post mark, was written to Mr. Lusk, of the Whitechapel vigilance committee, as follows:

"I write you a letter in black ink, as I have no more of the right stuff. I think you are all asleep in Scotland Yard with your bloodhounds, as I will show you tomorrow night (Saturday). I am going to do a double event, but not in Whitechapel. Got rather too warm there; had to shift. No more till you hear from me again. JACK THE RIPPER.

FRIGHTFUL HOLOCAUST.

A Six-Storey Factory at Rochester, N. Y., Burned.

Between Fifty and Sixty Employees Lose Their Lives—The Men Become Panic-Stricken and Leap From the Upper Stories of the Burning Building—List of the Dead and Injured as Far as Known.

[Special to THE COLONIST.]

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 9.—The Rochester Steam Guage and Lantern Works has been burned. There were 80 persons in the building, of whom four have been taken out dead, 16 seriously injured, 14 safe, and the remainder unaccounted for, so that probably 40 or 50 are dead.

LATER.

The most disastrous and fatal fire that has happened in this city for many years occurred this evening. The loss of life is between 50 and 60 persons. A general alarm was sounded at 7:30 o'clock, on fire being discovered in the packing room of the Rochester Steam Guage and Lantern Works, an important factory employing a large number of men. So busy has the factory been lately that the men have been working night and day. The building was six stories high. About sixty men were working in the three upper floors, and as soon as they found there was fire underneath them, they began to leap from the windows, ignoring the fire escapes from the balconies on the south side of the building. In these leaps quite a number of men were injured, many of them so bad that they will probably die. By nine o'clock five men had been taken out dead, sixteen seriously injured, fourteen entirely safe, and the rest were unaccounted for, of whom quite a number are unknown by name. Following is so far as learned up to midnight. Killed: John Gall, fireman; Joseph Danzer who jumped from the sixth floor and was picked up dead; Henry Snyder, Frank A. Ochs and Joseph Webber. The injured are: Frank Siddons, both legs and back broken, will probably die; Jacob Diehl, night watchman, burned internally and prostrated by the shock; John Devlin, left leg and wrist injured; Richard Parce, John Greenaver, Wm. Devlin, Frank Froedlin, S. Burkhard, Oscar Knotts, Joseph Burkhard, Charles Diehl, G. Kippert, Stephen Forbes, John Greenaver (the second by that name), Con. Helleran and John Ball.

THE MISSING.

Those known to be missing are: Thos. Mathias, S. Robinson, Charles Weber, John Miller, Patrick Cosgrove, Richard Cannon, G Watters, Chas. Smith, Robert Pool, Frank Remish, and Alfred Cannon. These are known to be missing, but until the books are examined it will be impossible to tell who were actually at work.

The cause of the fire is a mystery. The men went to work after supper and all seemed to be right then. Soon after the watchman, while making his usual rounds, discovered flames making their way up through the floor. He had barely time to give an alarm when he was surrounded by flames, but he succeeded in making the danger known to the men on the fourth, fifth and sixth floors. These at once realized their position and made their way from the building, but before they all got out the structure was a seething mass of flames. There was by the usual doors of exit, and the windows were at once utilized for the purpose. The majority of the workmen lost their heads, and began to jump instead of taking the fire ladders that were attached to the building. It is believed that a large number of men are buried in the ruins, but at present it is impossible to be sure of this. All may have escaped, but the probabilities are decidedly against it. As soon as the ruins are sufficiently cool work will begin of searching for the bodies. The streets were crowded with people during the progress of the fire, anxious for their friends and acquaintances. They stood through the heavy rain which fell constantly during the evening.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

More unsightly verandahs are being torn down on Johnson street.

The steward of Royal Hospital thanks Mr. John B. Logan and "a friend" for a parcel of clothing each.

Flags floated gaily in various parts of the city yesterday in celebration of the birthday of H.R.H., the Prince of Wales.

A two-storey brick building is being erected at the corner of Broughton and Gordon streets. It will when completed be occupied by Messrs. Dempster and Beck, as a carriage factory.

Mr. Charles Burns, owner of the sloop that went ashore near Trial Island last Friday night with a cargo of hoops for the Saanich Lime Co., has returned to San Juan by way of Port Townsend, and will leave San Juan at once with another sloop to try and release his own from the rocks at Fowl Bay.

The usual daily runaway occured yesterday afternoon on Government street, a horse owned by Mr. Jacob Sehl creating the excitement, by running from Mr. Sehl's establishment on Government street, to the stable at his residence on Laurel Point, over James Bay.

A gentleman being threatened with an infectious fever said to his little son who, in an affectionate mood, wished to hug him: "You musn't hug me; you'll catch the fever." Willie looked in amazement at his papa, who, by the way, is a model of propriety, and quickly asked: "Why, papa, who did you hug."

DISHONESTY DENOUNCED.

It is pleasant to see that there are men in the United States who see the trick played upon Lord Sackville in its true light and who are not afraid to say what they think. These men do not wish the world to conclude that all American politicians are tricksters ready to impose upon honest and unsuspicious men with whom they have dealings. They are indignant, too, that party leaders in the republic are so unscrupulous as to take advantage of the dishonorable devices of the lowest and most dishonest class of electioneering agents. Every phase of the Sackville episode fills them with disgust and the conduct of both Cleveland and Harrison and their respective supporters makes them ashamed of their countrymen. The feelings and opinions of these high-minded men have found expression in many American newspapers. One of these is the Argonaut, a high class weekly published in San Francisco. Commenting upon the affair the Argonaut in a leading article says:—

"Nothing but partisan madness and political rivalry could influence our politicians and political journals to the altogether absurd position taken by them over the very simple fact that the English Minister, by an artful and fraudulent device, has been entrapped into an expression of choice between the two Presidential candidates. His offense is that, believing that he had been addressed by a fellow-countryman, with sympathies for the land of his birth, asking his opinion and preferences, he replied in a letter that contains no word of censure to any party or party leaders, no unkind criticisms of any party measure, and no shadow of reflection upon the government to which he has been accredited as Minister. The discreditable fact about the whole business is that Lord Sackville has been imposed upon by a dishonest letter for the use of a sensational country newspaper, and that what he wrote in confidence has been treacherously exposed for a political purpose. If the Democratic or Republican parties, the Examiner, Chronicle and Bulletin—for both parties and all these journals are in indecent competition over the affair—can make anything out of it except a vile political trick, we wish them joy of their undertaking. The British Minister has not violated the common law of diplomacy; he has not crossed the finest line that marks the boundary of the most friendly international intercourse; he has not done that which any private gentleman might not do in confidential intercourse with a supposed countryman making an honest appeal for advice to govern him in the exercise of his elective privilege. Lord Sackville has simply been imposed upon by some sharp and unscrupulous politician and the only discreditable thing about the whole affair is, that an American could be found vile enough to lay such a trap, and a country paper mean enough to spring it, and the partisan feeling of the country bitter enough and unmanly enough to make use of it."

It is refreshing to read so vigorous and, at the same time, so just a denunciation of what is mean and dishonest in politics. It is to be hoped that there are very many in the United States who are above the tricks and plots of trading politicians and that they will, by taking an active part in political contests, make their influence felt. It is bad for a country when men can without discredit pursue a course in politics which would drive them from the society of decent and honorable men were they to attempt to follow it in their ordinary business. "All's fair in politics" is a maxim for scoundrels. And the country in which a majority of its public men act upon it has advanced far on the road to national ruin.

BRITISH ENTERPRISE.

An enterprising Englishman rejoicing in the not very musical or aristocratic name of Wiggins, has opened up the northern and central parts of Siberia to commerce. Mr. Wiggins was a seafaring man. He became convinced that it was possible to penetrate Siberia by means of the Obi and the Yenisei. The general opinion was that the Kara Sea was not navigable but he thought otherwise. He believed that after the summer had set in and these rivers had poured their warmer waters into that sea it became navigable for at any rate a short season. Acting upon this conviction as soon as he had money enough, he fitted out a small steam yacht which he called the "Diana," and set sail for the Straits of Kara. He penetrated the Str[illegible], and entered first the mouth of the Obi, then that of the Yenisei. This was in 1874. His voyage being merely exploratory he was satisfied with the results. Two years afterwards Mr. Wiggins crossed the Kara Sea in a small steamer of a hundred tons called the "Thames" and steamed a thousand miles up the Yenisei. He laid his little ship up for the winter, but the haven was ill-chosen, for in the spring, when the ice began to move she came to grief. But Wiggins was not to be beaten by an ice "shove." He tried again, this time with a 500 ton steamer placed at his disposal. With this ship he carried a cargo to the mouth of the Obi, and when he disposed of it he returned. His success caused a company to fit out five steamers for this new trade. The voyage was unsuccessful. The vessels were unable to reach their destination and were wrecked among the ice fields. But Mr. Wiggins' faith in his scheme was not killed by this failure, and in 1880 he succeeded in getting together a company which was called the Phœnix Merchant Adventurers. They bought an iron steamer of four hundred tons burden, put a cargo on board, and sent Wiggins with her to find the way to the Yenisei. The enterprising voyager was successful. He navigated the ice-covered Kara Sea, entered the Yenisei and sailed up it some two thousand miles. When he ceased ascending the river he was within a few hundred versts of the Chinese frontier. The report of Sir R. B. D. Morier, British ambassador to the Court of St. Petersburg, on this enterprise says: "On the 9th of October, 1887, for the first time, a sea-going steamship, carrying her own cargo, from across the ocean cast anchor and landed her goods in the heart of Siberia." The ambassador represented the case of these Adventurers to the Russian Government showing how much they had done to develop the trade of the country and what expense they were at. These representations were duly considered by the Russian authorities, and the result has been that not only have the goods they brought into Russia by this new Northern route been admitted free of duty but the Ambassador has obtained for them a five years concession for the free entry of certain classes of goods up the Yenisei and a similar concession of one year for the Obi. So it is to be hoped that the pluck, the enterprise and the intelligence of Wiggins will be at last rewarded. Siberia which is thus opened up from the north, will before very long be penetrated by a railroad from the west. A great Russian Pacific railroad has been projected and will before long be commenced. The immense region known as Siberia and considered the most dreary and inhospitable part of the earth's surface, will before very long be proved to possess immense resources and to be to a very great extent an improvable country.

AN APPRECIATIVE VISITOR.

British Columbia, and particularly Victoria, cannot but make a good impression on an intelligent stranger. It's mild, and at times delightful climate, and its beautiful scenery, must cause him to look upon it as one of the most desirable places to live in that can be found on the continent. The town has its drawbacks certainly, but these are all artificial. Nature has treated it generously. It's situation is simply delightful. It ought to be the cleanest and the most healthy, as it is the prettiest, town in the Dominion of Canada. With an intelligent and energetic civic government, Victoria could be made a model town. It has advantages that few cities possess. With taste on the part of its inhabitants (and much taste is displayed) and enterprise on the part of its corporation, it could be made a most charming place of residence. Mr. O'Connor Power, who visited Victoria a few months ago, appreciated its beauties and made an intelligent estimate of its capabilities. In a recent letter he says:—

"Victoria possesses many advantages as a residential city for those who like a quiet life, full of ease and comfort, and containing a certain amount of dignity. Its population though somewhat English in tone, is sufficiently cosmopolitan to be agreeable to Americans as well as Englishmen. Each year will add to its popularity with the travelling public, and many Californians will continue to spend a portion of the year in its balmy air, enjoying not merely its beautiful scenery and charming society, but that priceless repose and restfulness ever produced by an entire change such as can alone be obtained by occasionally mixing with people of different customs and habits and modes of life from those one is accustomed to at home."

Again he says: The charm of Victoria is its happy situation. It commands such glorious views of the mountain scenery on the mainland, and its tropical vegetation of flowers and plants affords a pleasing contrast to the snow-capped summits glittering on the opposite shores.

This visitor gives a good report of the Island of Vancouver. He says:

Any one who visits Vancouver Island should make a trip over the Island Railway, which connects Victoria with the coal fields of Wellington and Nanaimo, which is gradually opening up the rich defiles, the unexplored solitudes and the sloping water sheds of this most interesting country. The scenery for some distance along the line is like that of Cumberland, the lake country of England, and though the rugged grandeur of the Rocky Mountains is wanting, we find ourselves gliding over deep gorges and rushing waterfalls, now rounding the steep side of some overhanging precipice, now speeding past green foliage which is relieved at every turn by some winding river or the smooth, clear waters of a bright lake reposing in peaceful tranquility. The view never tires, and as you pass over some monster trestle or turn some dizzy height it is impossible not to be struck with admiration and surprise at the many triumphs of engineering skill and mechanical science by which you are enabled to continue your journey on the iron highway.

Mr. O'Connor Power formed a high opinion of the resources of the whole Province. His letter is well and pleasantly written, and the picture which he paints of the attractions of British Columbia, though bright, is not by any means too highly colored.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS.

A. T. STEWART'S riches have taken to themselves wings and have flown it is hard to tell where. One would think that it would be impossible for a childless woman such as Mrs. Stewart was to dissipate in a few years the millions left her by her husband. But strange as it appears the trial now going on before the Surrogate in New York shows it to be true. Every year from the day of her husband's death Mrs. Stewart spent much more than her income. Some years the excess amounted to millions. She gave much away, it is true, but her gifts, liberal as they were, did not amount to a tithe of what in some mysterious way slipped through her hands. What is strange is that property which when her husband was alive yielded handsome returns, after his death became less and less valuable until at last the expense of maintaining it was more than the income derived from it. A store in Tenth street, for instance, in 1876 yielded $170,444 which ground-rent, taxes and other expenses cut down to $90,185. Each succeeding year the income of the store decreased while the expenditure increased, until in 1886 the expenses overbalanced the income. As with that property so with others, it all melted away and at last when Mrs. Stewart died she was actually in debt. Her property it appears was managed by ex-Judge Henry Hilton. While Mrs. Stewart became poorer and poorer Judge Hilton became richer and richer. She died in debt; he lives a millionaire. Such is life.

WE see that the newspapers in the East are trying to make capital out of Mr. Blake's accepting a retainer from the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. The editors of many of the newspapers, both Conservative and Liberal, think it inconsistent for the late leader of the Opposition to exercise his talents as a lawyer in the service of the Company. Where does the inconsistency come in? The policy of the Government in building the road is not in question. In fact, the question to be decided is not one of politics at all. It is purely commercial and legal in its nature. The Government have made a bargain with the C. P. R. respecting the construction of the British Columbia section of the road. The Company contends that the Government have failed to fulfil the conditions of their bargain. The matter in dispute has been left to arbitration. What is there to hinder Mr. Blake giving the Company the benefit of his legal skill and knowledge in this matter of contract? The questions to be submitted to the arbitrators have not the most remote connection with the questions discussed by Mr. Blake in his place in the House of Commons. We are not much concerned about Mr. Blake's reputation, either as a politician or a lawyer. He is, indeed, well able to defend his acts in either capacity. But fair play is a jewel. And it is not fair to sneer at Mr. Blake for doing what any man in his profession, no matter what his politics are, would be glad to do if he had the chance.

CURIOUS TOILET RECIPES.

Some of Them Culled from the Manuscripts of Ancient Egypt.

Curious hair recipes occur on some of the papyri, some of which are very absurd.

One to prevent the hair from turning gray directs that a salve should be made from the blood of a black calf cooked in oil; in another that of a black bull is preferred for the same object; evidently the color of the animal was to pass through the salve into the hair.

In another place we read of the tooth of a donkey dipped in honey being used for really strengthening the hair; and the ingredients for an ingenious compound are given for injuring the hair of a rival, and the counter remedy to be used by those who think their hair oil has been tampered with by a suspicious friend.

Cakes of some composition which obsorbed oil were always placed on the heads of guests at feasts, and from them the oil trickled down through the hair. A most disagreeable practice this may seem to us, but to them it appears to have given great pleasure; and with the Egyptians, as with the Hebrews, oil was symbolical of joy and gladness.

Rouge and other coloring substances were used by women of Egypt to enhance, as they thought, their beauty; the eyes had often a green line underneath them; the lashes and eyebrows were penciled in black, and, as in modern Egypt, the nails were always stained red with a preparation from the henna plant.

In our museums we can see the little pots and vases formerly filled with these unguents and colors, and the pencils they used with them, as well as various sorts of combs and hairpins.

MONEY AND MATRIMONY.

The Frankly Expressed Views of a Wife on the Connection of These Two Things.

I am certain that money, or, rather, the want of it, is at the root of most failures in marriage. We have everything to make us happy but that, and I can assure you it is an evil of no mean growth or limited influence.

My husband is a soldier, and one of the very best and truest gentlemen on God's earth. I, his wife, and in many ways a very good one, for I combine intense economy with really good appearances (as far as they go), and I work very hard, and yet hold my own among the "society" people to whom we belong.

But, oh! if you had any idea of the "drive" that it is to do this. The struggle, I feel, is spoiling me. I am so cantankerous at home, so full of cares, so impatient and snappish, so annoyed at the smallest waste of money, that I am, I know it, often unbearable to my good man.

He would often settle the question, I feel, and let me live alone if we didn't love each other and the child so dearly.

ODD SLIPS IN DISCOURSE.

Some Entertaining Instances of Infelicities of Speech.

A lecturer said, all unconscious of his awkward expression:

"I must beg you to give me your undivided attention; indeed, it is absolutely impossible that you could form a true idea of the hideous animal of which we are about to speak, unless you keep your eyes fixed on me."

A certain preacher discoursing upon Bunyan and his works caused a titter among his hearers by exclaiming:

"In these days, my brethren, we want more Bunyans."

Another clergyman pleading earnestly with his parishioners for the construction of a cemetery for their parish, asked them to consider the "deplorable condition of 30,000 Christian Englishmen living without Christian burial."

Still more curious was this clerical slip. A gentleman said to the minister:

"When do you expect to see Deacon S. again?"

"Never," said the reverend gentleman solemnly; "the Deacon is in heaven."

THE VEHICLE OF THE FUTURE.

Prognostications That Make Us Want To Be Young Again.

A recent writer suggests that we shall in the next century, have very little use for horses. He supposes airships to be not only an achievement, but to be as common as wagons are now.

The farmer has then only to hitch a load to his airboat, and lift it clear of trees, and move straight to market.

The effect of navigating the air will, however, be most marked on urban life. Cities will no longer be needed to any such extent as now. The airship, avoiding streets, can make a location in the country as desirable for a great store as one in a city.

Will not also a vast amount of land now needed for highways be given over to tillage? Go ahead and give us the airship.

The Everyday Puzzles of Life.

After a century of hot discussion we are not certain whether coffee is a wholesome stimulant or a deadly poison; whether we should have hot baths or cold or no baths at all; whether we should keep our feet dry or pay no attention to wet feet and soaked clothing; whether tobacco is a blessing or a curse; whether we over-eat or under-eat; whether we should eat at night or go to bed hungry; whether we should exercise more or should exercise less; whether we should drink much water or little.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

A Cure for Sleeplessness.

Is sleeplessness curable? A correspondent who says he has tried the remedy and found it efficacious declares that thinking of a dream and going over and over the scene it presented will induce sleep.

He is entitled to be believed so far as his own experience goes, and at any rate he rightly urges that the expedient of counting numbers or repeating easy-flowing verses often, if not always, fails.

In the Art Gallery.

"You want to be careful of that umbrella," said an art dealer to a countryman who was indicating the fine points of a picture to his wife.

"All right, mister," responded the agriculturist, "I won't let go of that umbrel' till I git back home."—Utica Observer.

Variety the Spice of Life.

To an old couple, who boasted that they had lived man and wife for fifty years, and never had a dispute, the listener replied: "What a doleful, monotonous life you must have had!"—Philadelphia Ledger.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown, —to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channels is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

THE BELLE OF LIMA.

Her Beauty and Fascinations, and the Care Taken of Her by a Jealous Mother.

Lima from the earliest times has been noted for its beautiful women; not merely for symmetrical features, but elegance of physique and graceful movement.

In speaking of the women of Lima reference is made to the superior class of Spanish descendants, the genealogies of Pizarro and his followers, who, as Prescott states, shod their horses with silver shoes and gambled away in one night the accumulated wealth of centuries.

A typical Lima belle is of greater stature than the North American model of beauty, possessing a well-rounded, graceful form, small and elegantly moulded feet, and pearly teeth.

The eyes are dark, large, and so bewitching in their expression as to drive care from the skipper's mind as he whirls his ideal beauty through the long hallway, his soul keeping time with the spirited waltzes, until gathered into the folds of the same manta with his senorita. The essentiality of the life of a Liman belle is pleasure.

The young ladies (senoritas) of the family either accompany their parents in the evening ramble or are attended by their personal servants; usually two young ladies walk together, followed by their attendants. Should they meet a gentleman of their acquaintance, they cordially invite him to join them in their passo.

If he be a Peruvian he takes his place behind the ladies and chats over their shoulders as they pass along. Should he happen to be a grengo, as foreigners are termed, he would be politely asked to walk in the rear, and would suffer from solid indifference unless he should sufficiently compensate the attendants—which is no difficult matter—to remain in some alley until the return of the ladies.

If this arrangement is consented to by all, the young people seek secluded streets, where they are not liable to meet with parents and friends and where all formality is thrown aside.

If it should transpire that this gentleman calls upon these young ladies the following evening, the coolness of his reception would indicate that they had never before met; but he would be ushered into the parlor and hospitably received by the family.

Young ladies are not allowed to receive gentlemen callers in private. One of the parents, a sister or an attendant, assists in entertaining, and at times the whole family.

The mother, knowing the passionate disposition of her race, constantly endeavors to screen her daughter from secluded male company until her marriage. After marriage she is free to invite to her house all her lovers and to there entertain them, whether her husband is there or not.

This newly gained freedom extends further—to the extent that she is now at liberty to indulge in flirtations upon the streets or in the gardens, with her bewitching glances luring her admirers to her home.

However, many daughters are exasperated beyond patience from observing the flirtations of a married sister or other relative, and devote their evenings upon the balcony passing notes to their lovers.

Perhaps he, a stranger, first attracted her attention as she leaned over the baluster by passing several times beneath the balcony. If she desires his acquaintance he receives some signal which emboldens him to bow or pass a card to the lady.

The initiatory being over, evenings are passed in this manner until the acquaintance has ripened into friendship, when the gentleman is free to call or stroll through the plaza or garden. These balcony scenes being clandestine, they are not enacted until a late hour, when the mother is unconscious of her daughter's whereabouts, as she has been carefully watched until she is safely lodged in her bedroom, with its barred windows.—San Francisco Chronicle.

DEMOCRATIC ENGLISH WOMEN.

The Kitchen and Drawing-room Dancing together at Christmas and Other Festival Times.

English women are in many things more democratic than American women dare to be, particularly in their intercourse with servants and women in a lower social sphere. Perhaps it is because the line of demarcation is more clearly marked there than here, and women dare to be more familiar because they know it will be understood and no advantage taken of it.

For example, at the Christmas ball given to the servants in English country houses it is customary for the family to go down in the servants' hall, and while the father and mother look on the son of the house treads a measure with the pleased and smiling housekeeper, while the daughter not infrequently allows the blushing and grinning coachman to walk through a lanciers with her.

Young women in America have been known to run off with coachmen, but they never dare, even on Christmas Eve, dance the lanciers with them.

The gulf is quite as wide between society women and the shop-girls, but it is not so in London, where a society of aristocratic women give an annual "fete and masque" to the working girls of the English capital.

This society has been in existence for five years, and every season they exert themselves to give the hard-working women, whose play days are all too few, one evening of unalloyed pleasure.

The last annual ball was more than ever beautiful and enjoyable. The members of the society invited a lot of the titled Americans, the new Duchess of Marlborough and Lady Randolph Churchill among them, and had a gay crowd of fashionable people to mingle with the shop-girls.

A Bright and Beauteous Bride.

Old Lady (to elderly bride on wedding trip)—"That young man who just went into the smokin' car seems to be wery fond o' you, Ma'am."

Elderly Bride—"Ah, yes, John loves me most dearly."

Old Lady—"It does my heart good to see sech affections these days. Is he the only son ye got, ma'am?"

Her Useful Small Brother.

Willie—"What makes you come to our house so often, Mr. Hankinson? Do you want to marry our Irene?"

Miss Irene (taken by surprise, but realizing with rare presence of mind that Mr. Hankinson has got to say something now) —"Willie, you impertinent boy, leave the room!"

Among the Indians.

"While my husband was trading in furs he came across an Indian who was taken to his lodge to die. He had inward pains and pains in all his limbs. He gave some Yellow Oil internally, and applied it externally, and cured him. It also cured my husband of rheumatism, and I find it valuable for coughs and colds, sore throat, etc." Mrs. A. Besaw, Cook's Mills, Serpent River, Ont. tts

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhoea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP," and take no other kind. my31-eod-dw

SPECIALTIES.

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS

A Scaly, Itching, Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twenty-eight years ago it would have saved me $200.00 (two hundred dollars) and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (Psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ring-worm, psoriasis, etc. I took .....and....Sarsaparillas over one year and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors and no cure. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them was three boxes of CUTICURA, and three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200 00 you would have had the money. I looked like the picture in your book of Psoriasis (picture number two, "How to Cure Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Anything more that you want to know write me, or any one who reads this may write to me and I will answer it.

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

Delayed by Fog.

The steamer Yosemite did not leave Vancouver until 6:30 last evening, being delayed by fog, and did not reach her dock until 1:15 this morning.

In Aid of the Orphans.

Philharmonic Hall will be opened to the public this evening at 7 o'clock, when the articles remaining on hand from the late bazaar will be disposed of. Admission free.

Prince of Wales' Birthday.

Yesterday was the forty-seventh anniversary of the birth of His Royal Highness Albert Edward Prince of Wales. There was a liberal display of bunting in the city in honor of the event.

Police Court.

The case of M. Jamieson, charged with obtaining board at the Pacific Telegraph Hotel under false pretences, was the only one before the magistrate yesterday morning. The prosecutor did not appear and the case was dismissed.

Obituary.

Mrs. Susanna Pittock, mother of R. Pittock of the Evening Standard, and H. L. Pittock, of the Portland Oregonian, died at the residence of her son, T. R. Pittock, Neville Island, Alleghany county, Pennsylvania, on Thursday. The deceased lady was in her 88th year.

The Westminster Southern.

The Columbian says: "The Southern railway matter has been definitely settled, and there is now no obstacle in the way of the rapid completion of the road. Mr. Jas. Leamy has signed the contract to complete the road to the boundary line, and has now 240 men at work."

Vancouver Island Building Society.

The Vancouver Island Building society had another drawing at Harmony Hall on Thursday evening, when Mr. C. Booth and Mrs. A. J. Bishop, drew appropriations of $1,000 each. The Victoria Building Society will hold a drawing on Thursday evening next.

St. Andrew's Concert.

The second concert under the auspices of the Young People's Association of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, will be held on Monday evening, 12th November, at Philharmonic Hall, when English character will be illustrated in song and story. All those who were at the first concert will not miss the second opportunity of having a rare treat as the programme promises to even surpass the last.

"Chip O' the Old Block."

Many comedy companies are on the road, and the one that is making the big hit and scoring the great success is "Chip o' the Old Block." Robt. L. Scott, Harry Mills and Miss Jessie Bonstelle are all well-known eastern comedy artists and are winning their way into the hearts of everyone who go to see them. The play is one of the funniest ever written and is produced by a company of artists. Do not miss it, as it is sure to make you roar. Victoria Theatre, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 16th and 17th. Seats at Waitt's book store.

Our Boys.

Mr. George Woodford, the eloquent temperance orator, addressed a large audience in Pandora Street Methodist Church, last evening, his remarks having reference solely to the welfare and future of "Our Boys."

He dwelt at length upon the power of home influence in the formation of character, and said that in his opinion it was better to bury childhood in its purity than to have the young brought up under the baneful influence of liquor in the home. Appealing to his hearers to banish liquor from the home and from the country, the lecturer said: "Banish it from the cooking, from the table, from the sideboard, from the saloon, from the nation—for the sake of our boys." Mr. Woodford speaks again this evening in the Methodist Church.

Westminster Terrorized.

For several weeks past a series of robberies have been committed at Westminster, in every case the thieves getting safely off with their booty, and so far, the police have been unable to detect the thieves or find any trace of the stolen property. Having so successfully evaded the law, the robbers are becoming bolder, and the Columbian reports several attempted murders, the object of the would-be assassins evidently being robbery. On Monday night an attempt was made to murder Mr. Harvey, and on Wednesday morning an attempt was made on the life of Mr. Sandy Robertson, purser of the steamer Irving. Mr. Robertson was attacked by two men, one of whom used a knife. The purser, however, beat both his assailants off, and administered a good kicking to one of them. He could not prevent their escape, however. On Wednesday evening Mr. W. H. Lewis, of the Columbian, was followed by two strange men. Noticing their suspicious appearance, Mr. Lewis quickened his pace, and reached home before the footpads could overtake him. On Tuesday night the store of M. A. McRae on Columbia street, was burglarized, a quantity of cloth being carried off. On Wednesday night the store of the Royal City Planing mills was feloniously entered and a good haul was made, the thieves getting away with groceries, tobacco, etc., to the value of several hundred dollars. The Columbian says: "All these occurrences tend to show that a large and well organized band of robbers and cut-throats are now operating in the city. While the want of a sufficient police protection exists, citizens should go provided to defend their lives and property against the organization which, it is feared, has not yet completed its work."

PERSONAL.

Thos. Trounce will leave for San Francisco to-day.

John Richards leaves for a trip to Southern California to-day.

Frank M. Severance of Toronto is spending a week in the city.

Rev. Father Brabant, of Hesquiot, on the west coast, is in the city.

Hon. J. H. Turner was among the arrivals by the Yosemite this morning.

J. H. Todd and W. L. Cusack returned to Victoria from the mainland this morning.

Mrs. J. McCurdy of the Revere House returned this morning from a visit to Port Townsend.

The Westminster Football club arrived by the steamer Louise yesterday and are at the Clarence.

Hon. F. G. Vernon, chief commissioner of lands and works, returned from the mainland this morning.

Capt. Urquhart, M. H. Cowan and Capt. Snowden arrived down by the Yosemite this morning.

The following guests are at the Clarence: A. Robinson and wife, Seattle; M. J. Haney, Ottawa; H. Van Patten and wife, Dayton, W. T.; S. Warburg, Portland; W. H. Steves, Lulu Island; Miss C. M. Tully, Lulu Island; J. B. Morris, San Francisco.

Right Rev. J. B. Brondel, R.C. Bishop of Montana, arrived in the city yesterday morning, and is a guest of Bishop Lemmens. Bishop Brondel has come to attend the funeral obsequies of the late Archbishop Seghers, whose remains will shortly arrive from the north by the U. S. Cutter Thetis.

Lett's Office Diaries—T. N. HIBBEN & Co.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

FOOTBALL.

The Westminster fifteen arrived by the Princess Louise yesterday afternoon and are guests at the Clarence. The game will begin at 3 p.m. sharp, and we trust that Victorians will turn out in force to give our boys encouragement. Spectators will show some small consideration for the visitors if they will not stand on the field of play or behind the goal posts. The last match against Nanaimo was greatly spoiled owing to the spectators encroaching on the ground.

A COMING TREAT.

Last evening was a busy one for the members of the Victoria Athletic Club, who turned out in full force at the gymnasium, Yates street, for a full rehearsal of the programme to be presented at the coming athletic tournament. A general meeting of the officers will be held on Tuesday evening next, when the date of the entertainment will be definitely fixed and the place, which will be either the Victoria Theatre or Philharmonic Hall. It is expected that the night of the 6th of December will be fixed upon for the performance.

The programme will include a spring-board act, with leaping and lofty tumbling, in which twelve men will take part; horizontal bar work, by eight or ten of the best athletes of the club; Indian club swinging, in class of three, and a single exhibition of the latest fancy swinging and club juggling, including the mysterious fire club, one of the prettiest tricks of this branch of athletics and something entirely new on this coast; the slack-wire performance, including all the latest tricks; and a performance on the parallel bars and vaulting horse. In addition to these attractions the programme will include an exhibition of fancy ground tumbling, front, back and trick somersaulting, the brother act, etc., by six as neat acrobats as can be found on the Pacific Coast; a table acrobatic pantomime, the funny feature of the entertainment, and an exhibition of strength by Mr. Joe Coleman, the "man with the iron jaw." The exhibition will be a first-class display of athletics, and as such should draw a big house. If the Philharmonic Hall is chosen for the entertainment, it will probably be followed by a private hop, for the members of the club and their friends.

THE "THETIS"

Arrives at Departure Bay With the Remains of the Late Archbishop Seghers.

A telegram to THE COLONIST announces that the U. S. steamer Thetis, Capt. Emory, arrived at Port Townsend from Sitka yesterday, having on board the remains of the lamented Archbishop Seghers. From Port Townsend the Thetis sailed for Departure Bay to coal, where she will remain two or three days before coming to Esquimalt.

Upon her arrival at Esquimalt, the remains will be received by the Roman Catholic clergy and members of the congregation, and quietly conveyed to the Episcopal Palace on Yates street, where the body will be kept until the funeral arrangements are complete. Invitations have been sent by telegraph to Archbishop Gross, of Oregon, Bishop Junger, Bishop Glorieux and Bishop Durein, and all the priests of the diocese, to attend the funeral. Bishop Brondel, of Montana, who is already in the city, will preach the funeral oration at the obsequies of the deceased prelate. The funeral services will be held in the pro-Cathedral, and will be of a most impressive character. Final arrangements for the funeral, and the date thereof, will be decided by Bishop Lemmens to-day, and due announcement will be made in the pro-Cathedral to-morrow morning.

SUPREME COURT.

(Before the Chief Justice and a Jury.)

Prevost vs. Smith—Plaintiff representing the heirs of Wm. Stirling, deceased, claimed to be entitled to a house and a portion of a lot on Mears street occupied by Stirling at the time of his death. The defendant, W. H. Smith, stated that the property was given Stirling to be used during his life only, no transfer had been given by Smith to Stirling. Witnesses for plaintiff were John Kurtz, Frank Page, Robt. Tennant and W. Humphrey. M. W. T. Drake and Charles Wilson for plaintiff; J. R. Hett for defendant. Judgment was reserved for further argument on part of plaintiff and defendant.

THE RIGHTS OF FOREIGNERS IN CHINA.

The characters Kung Tso, in the Chinese text of our treaty with that nation, have been the subject of much learned and exhaustive correspondence between several legations, and the Tsung li ya men or foreign office at Peking. The subject is one which, examined by the light of a recent despatch of the Prime Minister Li Chung Tang to a Chinese official at Shanghai, is pregnant with vital and overpowering importance to our people there, the rebound of which will surely affect our interests here in a marked and profitable degree. To one conversant with the power and value of Chinese symbols, as covering their English equivalents, one cannot but feel impressed with the belief that we have here again to contend against the astute diplomatic while of an Asiatic statesman in an endeavor to wrest from us the treaty right to manufacture. The petition of the Chinese merchants, and its refusal, appears but a transparent cover under which the viceroy hurls a shaft at our commercial interests at Shanghai. The scheme fell, which ruined the silk filitures works of an American firm, in arresting the compradore for supposed dealings with Taiping rebels of twenty odd years back, could not well be repeated with an English firm, but the principle is there all the same, as we read, that the clients of an English firm have been frightened off. In the despatch His Excellency Li Chung Tang proceeds to observe "that the rule, as regards foreign merchants, is, that they cannot manufacture Chinese produce in Chinese ports, or convert it by industrial processes into a different nature of goods. It matters not, when or who, this rule cannot be set aside in favor of any foreigner, nor can any foreigner be allowed, by establishing a manufactory for weaving cotton, to encroach on the rights of the natives of China, and to take the bread out of the mouths of the Chinese. The Taotai is therefore instructed to maintain the native rights with energy and decision in order that these enterprises may be put an end to."

Should England concede the point, the outcome in the future may be forseen in increased enterprises in our province, making it the centre of manufacturing concerns. Messrs. Hall & Ross, of our city, send beyond China for the raw material which they convert into a different class of goods. This profitable measure is one so lucrative that our capitalists will ere long see in India and China markets for their raw material and manufactured material. Should they not see this they may depend upon it that China merchants will take advantage of their proximity to China to avail of their skilled labor, their machinery and other appliances in the manufacture from the raw material felts, camel's wool, refuse and silk filitures. CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE CO-OPERATIVE COMMONWEALTH.

TO THE EDITOR:—The enclosed will be read with interest by all who are seeking to advance human happiness on the lines laid down by Christ in the "Sermon on the Mount."

Great interest was manifested this time last year when I had the pleasure of bringing this new departure in Christian temperance work before the people of England by the delivery of three lectures in the Great Central temperance hall, Bishopsgate; Hoxton temperance hall (the headquarters of the Blue Ribbon movement), Co-operative Industrial societies, Church of England temperance societies, Good Templars' clubs, Young Men's Christian associations and kindred societies. The publicity given to the movement by the Christian World, Christian Herald, Church of England Temperance Chronicle, Alliance News, Temperance World and Blue Ribbon Chronicle and the provincial press brought me a flood of correspondence from all parts of the world.

Having studied the economic problem foa the past eight years in the library of the British Museum, I fearlessly state that nothing will meet the present crisis but the re-establishment of the Commonwealth—Matt. v., vi., vii. chaps.; Acts II., 44-5-6-7, IV., 31-2-3. It is for this purpose I came to British Columbia, and all my efforts will be directed to accomplish this end. I have the satisfaction of knowing that I have the sympathies of "all sorts and conditions of men."

Many thanks are due to the following: Allan Co. for reduced fares (intermediate forsteerage price) for our pioneer party per s. s. Buenos Ayrean, from London to Quebec; also to the officers for fitting up accommodation for Sabbath services and lectures. To McKay, Esq., government buildings, Quebec, for his kind hospitality in entertaining our party at Quebec; to the Canadian Pacific Railway Co., for a free pass to me as the honorary secretary from Quebec to Victoria; to the Rev. Taylor, Presbyterian, and Rev. Bunt, Methodist, for the use of their churches for gospel temperance services at Moosejaw; to Capt. John Irving, of the C. P. N. Co., for free passes to Mr. A. C. Miller and myself from Victoria to Queen Charlotte Islands on the steamer Maude; to W. Brochie and the Indian chief at Skidegate for their hospitality; to the Rev. Crosby, church warden of the Methodist Missionary Society, for a free pass on the steamer Glad Tidings from Queen Charlotte Islands to Fort Simpson; to Capt. Williams, for a free pass on the steamer Boscowitz from Fort Simpson to Victoria; to ex-Mayor Fell, for his kind hospitality; to the Hon. John Robson, provincial secretary, and J. H. Turner, Esq., finance minister, for their kind assistance in supplying me with a very able guide in the person of Mr. West Huson, and also for defraying the expenses of the exploring expedition to the north.

[COPY.]

To His Honor Hugh Nelson, Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of British Columbia:

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOR—

At a public meeting held on Dec. 20th, 1887, in the rooms of the "Metropolitan Anglo Israel Association" (kindly lent by the Council), 14 King William street, Charing Cross, London, England, Mr. S. Smith, of the firm of Smith & Sons, 13 Queen Elizabeth street, Eaton Square, Pimlico, in the chair.

With a view of helping a desirable class to emigrate, it was resolved to establish a "Temperance Colony" in British Columbia.

Four gentlemen were elected a committee with the power to increase their number to seven. The following are the names:

Mr. Alfred Jones, proprietor of Westerton's Library, Hyde Park corner and 14 Chesolton Road, Fulham, England.

Mr. Rowland Macworth, agriculturist, 118 Great Portland street, London, England.

Mr. Wm. R. King, architect, Bank street, Ashford, Kent, England.

F. Joseph Spencer, builder and contractor, 2 Grange Villas, Grange Road, Ramsgate, Kent, England. The latter was also elected as hon. secretary.

It was arranged that Mr. King and myself, as hon. secretary, should proceed to British Columbia, select a desirable site and make the application. Since our arrival here Mr. King has been on the mainland prospecting and I have, by your kind assistance in supplying me with a very able guide in the person of Mr. West Huson, explored Vancouver and the adjacent islands.

I have, on behalf of my committee, selected Malcolm Island, also a belt of land on Vancouver Island described as follows: Commencing at a point on the eastern boundary of Indian reserve at the mouth of Nimkish river, at its intersection with the shore line of Broughton Strait; thence due south one mile; thence due east two and one-half miles; thence due north to the shore line of Broughton Strait; thence following the shore line in a westerly direction to the point of commencement. Also to put a wing dam in the Nimkish river to tap the lakes above to bring the water from the same to the beach for manufacturing and other purposes.

My application is that Your Honor should make a reservation forthwith of the above named lands for one year with the view for the further development of our plans and to allow the necessary time for Your Honor to bring my application befor the House next session. That your Honor will ask the provincial parliament to make a further reservation of the before mentioned lands for seven years, and in consideration of the house assenting thereto my committee will undertake to agree to erect and furnish for each of its members a house upon the reserved land, such house not to be of less than 20 feet frontage by 24 ft. deep, and that each house shall be detached, and that no house shall be of less value than five hundred dollars.

That as soon as the house or houses are built and occupied, the occupier (who shall be either the head of a family, widow, or single man over the age of eighteen), shall be entitled to a free grant of land of one hundred acres within the reservation.

That a certificate signed by your honor's commissioner, or a justice of the peace, stating that he has taken the evidence of the occupier and two witnesses that the house has been erected and that the applicant is the occupier, and that the house is of the value of five hundred dollars shall be sufficient evidence and the applicant producing such certificate shall receive the deed for the one hundred acres according to form 7, sec. 20, chap. 16, Vic. 47, of 1884.

In the event of there not being sufficient free grants of land to include all that has been reserved, within the time of reservation my committee to still have the right to any lands that may be unrecorded or unoccupied upon the same terms as the reserved land was granted.

That when grants of land shall include all that has been reserved that the government will still continue to make free grants upon the same conditions as the reserved land to the amount of seven thousand free grants of one hundred acres each.

That each member to be exempt from all taxes for two years, the date to commence from the time he occupies the house built for him.

It is proposed that as soon as there are thirty houses erected and occupied that the occupants will apply for a charter of municipality. A clause will be inserted preventing the manufacture or sale of any intoxicating drinks within the municipality.

It is the intention of our members to develop the municipality upon Christian Temperance Co-operative Commonwealth principles. From this it will be understood that we intend introducing into the province a desirable class of colonists.

In the event of this application being granted we propose waiting upon Sir John Macdonald for assistance and also Lord Salisbury. We shall also raise subscriptions from the Christian temperance public to meet the necessary expenses. The committee who are promoting the colonization scheme are doing so gratuitously.

Awaiting yours,
I am your honor,
most respectfully,
F. JOSEPH SPENCER,
Hon. Sec. C.T.C.C.
